REVISITING THE WAR IN VIETNAM WITH MARK MOYAR

TUESDAY, NOV. 27 @7 P.M., BUCKNELL HALL

Mark Moyar is the Director of the Office of Civilian-Military Cooperation at USAID. He holds a B.A. summa cum laude from Harvard and a Ph.D. from Cambridge. He is a member of the Hoover Institution Working Group on the Role of Military History in Contemporary Conflict, and a Senior Fellow at the Foreign Policy Research Institute. Dr. Moyar is the author of two groundbreaking histories of the Vietnam War: Triumph Forsaken: The Vietnam War, 1954-1965 and Phoenix and the Birds of Prey: Counterinsurgency and Counterterrorism in Vietnam. At present, he is working on the sequel to Triumph Forsaken. His articles have appeared in the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Wall Street Journal, and numerous other publications.

Dr. Moyar will join us for a wide-ranging public discussion of American military involvement in Vietnam and the ways in which it was affected by political decision-making, mass media coverage, and other factors.
