

BUCKNELL PROGRAM FOR AMERICAN LEADERSHIP

CO-SPONSOR

CULTURE

AND the Constitution

The First Amendment & School Curriculum

Tuesday, April 18
7 p.m. | ELC Forum

Featuring in person:

Bion Bartning

Bion Bartning is the founder of FAIR, the Foundation Against Intolerance and Racism, and an entrepreneur and investor. Bion co-founded eos Products and was Chief Operating Officer of The Kind Group.

Ashley White, PhD.

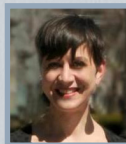

Ashley L. White is an assistant professor at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the inaugural Education Fellow for Equity Access and Opportunity with the NAACP. Prior to earning her Ph.D., White taught school for 15 years.

Via Zoom:

Mark Regnerus

Mark Regnerus is Professor of Sociology at the University of Texas at Austin. His research is in the areas of sexual behavior, family, marriage, and religion.

Amy Brainer, PhD.

Amy Brainer is Associate Professor of Women's and Gender Studies at University of Michigan-Dearborn. She is also the director of the Women's and Gender Studies Program as well as the LGBTQ Studies Certificate Program.

Scan for a text or email reminder.

This event is free. Tickets are not required.

BUCKNELL PROGRAM FOR AMERICAN LEADERSHIP

CO-SPONSOR

CULTURE

AND the Constitution

The First Amendment & School Curriculum

Tuesday, April 18
7 p.m. | ELC Forum

Scan for a text or email reminder.

This event is free.
Tickets are not required.

CULTURE

AND the Constitution

The First Amendment & School Curriculum

Tuesday, April 18
7 p.m. | ELC Forum

Featuring in person:

Bion Bartning

Bion Bartning is the founder of FAIR, the Foundation Against Intolerance and Racism, and an entrepreneur and investor. Bion co-founded eos Products and was Chief Operating Officer of The Kind Group.

Ashley White, PhD.

Ashley L. White is an assistant professor at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the inaugural Education Fellow for Equity Access and Opportunity with the NAACP. Prior to earning her Ph.D., White taught school for 15 years.

Via Zoom:

Mark Regnerus

Mark Regnerus is Professor of Sociology at the University of Texas at Austin. His research is in the areas of sexual behavior, family, marriage, and religion.

Amy Brainer, PhD.

Amy Brainer is Associate Professor of Women's and Gender Studies at University of Michigan-Dearborn. She is also the director of the Women's and Gender Studies Program as well as the LGBTQ Studies Certificate Program.

This event is free. Tickets are not required.